REPLY COMMENTS OF DIGITAL MICROWAVE CORPORATION

Pursuant to Section 1.405 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.405, The Digital Microwave Corporation ("DMC") hereby submits the Reply Comment below in the above captioned proceeding.

I. GENERAL

A leading global supplier of short-haul, low-to medium-capacity digital microwave radios, Digital Microwave provides transmission solutions for communications networks serving cellular, personal communications, wireless local loop, private, and telco/PTT applications. The company's corporate headquarters is located in San Jose, California. As a supplier of microwave radio equipment in the U.S. telecommunications market, Digital Microwave Corporation is vitally interested in the Commission's fixed service

Accordingly, DMC concurs fully with TIA's Reply Comments and urges the Commission to take them into account as it progresses its work in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
