Subject: diversity, freedom of the airwaves

Greetings.

I'm writing to decry your persecution of microbroadcasters. Instead of prohibiting them, you should regulate them. Most microbroadcasters have shown us that they can broadcast without interfering with commercial broadcasters. Also, microbroadcasting helps insure diversity on the airwaves.

Case in point: my hometown, Detroit. On your fingers, count how many commercial alternative rock stations Detroit has. Now count how many commercial classical stations Detroit has.

Good day.
