THE END IS NEAR, ONLY GOD KNOWS, THE HOUR AND DAY BUT WE HAVE SIGNS TO PREPARE FOR 7 YEARS OF HELL ON EARTH.

Author of "Civil War II: The Coming Breakup Of America" Comes to Tampa

Civil War II is coming soon!

Military analyst Tom Chittum has the guts to take a no-nonsense factual look at what more and more Americans have been thinking. He examines political, economic and demographic trends to conclude that America is headed toward either becoming an imperialistic police state in which there is little or no freedom or - more likely - collapsing into another civil war: Civil War II. This civil war will break America apart geographically, primarily along racial lines.

Author Tom Chittum won't leave you swimming in vague generalizations. He pinpoints the factors driving the breakup. He provides you with detailed maps which show how the country will likely be split, and who will be controlling what parts. He explains what areas of the country are likely to become hot spots, and why - again providing maps. He examines the timetable for Civil War II, explaining when it is likely to happen and why it will happen when it does. And he gives his readers solid advice on what to do to prepare and how to avoid a personal tragedy in the war. This book is a must for anyone concerned about the direction our country is headed in.
