

I want to record my opinion that the widespread availability of Wireless spectra is in the best interests of our ecological human aspirations. Please, in the future, make it possible for ordinary people to understand the issues and voice their opinions -- without having first to hire lawyers as translators.