

I would like to see an extension of time granted for more comments on this issue. As someone interested in the issue at hand, I only just returned to work following the customary holiday period off and learned that the deadline was January 4. Please extend the time for comments to one month hence so that those of us who are interested may research the topic and submit a considered report. Thank you for your consideration of this extension.