

I am writing to comment on the proposed granting of low-power FM licenses for low-power stations. I think it is a beneficial idea for the public, allowing greater diversity of opinion and use of the airwaves. It is a very good thing, and it is an appropriate use of the public airwaves, which belong to us, the public, not the broadcasting conglomerates.

Thank you very much.