

I urge you to support Low-Power FM (LPFM), and the make the license application process affordable and accessible to the general public. I would be interested in more information, as I would like to apply for a one or more watt Low-Power FM station at the 95.1 FM frequency.