

As a concerned citizen, I applaud your plan for low-power FM licensing, and look forward to seeing it implemented. Communities have needed something like this for a long time.