

The Northern Hills Amateur Radio Club Supports the FCC proposal to allow low power FM broadcast license. This is a excellent media to broadcast emergency prepardness and other similiar information to the public we serve. After a disaster or crises has affected a community it can serve as a means to broadcast community specific relief information