

Re:99-25. There is a great need in this area (San Diego) for "micro-stations". Most stations are owned by just a few companies (i.e. Jacor). Microstations will allow for a greater variety of news, music, and opinions than are currently available under conditions that are alarmingly close to those of a monopoly. Thank you.