

I am writing as a citizen and taxpayer to insist that the FCC allow low power radio stations to exist. The public is tired of the same old propaganda and garbage from the mass media and corporate conglomerates. We demand that instead of taking money from all the media special interests, you allow some of the real voices of America access to our airwaves. Why is the mass media afraid of this? Because they cant control it. Because the truth will come out. John RIVA