

please allow low-power fm radio. i enjoyed listening to a pirate station for a few years here in los angeles until it was shut down. commercial radio is garbage. people want real choices, not just what corporations allow.

sincerely,

fred michaud