

The FCC's extension of the time limit for comment is very much appreciated. I feel that the public was very much in the dark about this Proceeding until the press began to cover the story in January '99.