

I write in support of the legal creation of low power radio service licensing. This is a First Amendment issue; the FCC has limited free speech in an unconstitutional manner and betrayed its mission statement. Free the airwaves for non-corporate broadcasters. Stop your censorship operation.