

As an ordinary citizen I commend you for considering approval of microradio which can only enhance democracy for all of us, and I also commend you for giving us average listeners the chance to comment. I believe in public access tv, public radio and now microradio. It will definitely help us connect the neighborhood and local events with the broader community and the state, nation and maybe even the world. Thanks and do approve microradio. Kathie Lester