

There are thousands of Caribbean Residents living in South Florida and every year the number keeps rising along with the Caribbean small business. These small business are seeking affordable & effective means of advertising, large radio stations are too expensive for these business. Therefore having a Caribbean community radio station will be great for not only the small business and the Caribbean community but also for the country, because small business is the "back bone" of this country.