

I am in full support of the new proposed rules governing low-wattage radio stations. I urge the FCC to pass these rules and to do what is necessary to keep media monopolies from exploiting the low-wattage frequencies (forgive me if my terminology is off); in other words, these new rules should be for the benefit of INDEPENDENT RADIO!!!