

I fully support your proposal to open the airwaves to smaller broadcasters. Access to media broadcasting is essential to a properly functioning democracy, and low-wattage radio stations is one of few non-resource intensive ways to disseminate information without corporate censorship. Please pass the proposal.