

I am writing in support of Low Power FM Radio Service. I feel that low power stations would be an asset to many communities, provide a diversity of opinion and entertainment, and offer myriad educational opportunities.