

I am in favor of establishing new LP100 and microradio stations. I also do not see the need for restrictions on the lower-power radio stations in regards to whether or not they are commercial. I think there is room for both types on the dial. Please do not give in to the NAB's lobbying. They are just interested in holding onto their market share, while the needs and desires of communities are ignored.

Thanks,
Matthew