

I strongly encourage you to provide community radio licenses for small broadcasters. Giving the large broadcasters preference creates an un-democratic, un-competitive, and seriously censored environment. In this age when we are all so concerned about the fraying fabric of our communities, local community radio can play a vital role in helping people to be more connected to where they live. Please do not let the people's airwaves become a private/corporate domain. Thank you.