

I would like to go on record as supporting the issuance of low-power radio licenses for non-commercial use, in order to stimulate local culture and discussions.