Billy Tauzin Congressman Of LA. and Ed Fritz Of The NAB and Radio Conglomerates, have and are still in the Process at this Moment, To Take Dishonestly, Especially in a Secret Manner, The American Peoples Right to Free Enterprise, and Free Speech, and The American Dream:

The FCC has Proposed LPFM Broadcast Community Service and Business, in Docket MM 99-25, to Maintain the American Dream For Woman, Blacks, Hispanics, and The Disabled, and The Less Fortunate:

Stop The New Job Insecurity, With ,LPFM Service Docket MM 99-25 As Proposed By The FCC:

Since 1980, job loss and job insecurity -- even among well-educated, white-collar workers -- have played a major role in lowering average earnings. The rate of permanent job loss has been increasing since 1980. Awareness of widespread downsizings and layoffs have caused workers at all levels, from middle management to the shop floor, to be much more timid in seeking even cost-of-living adjustments.

In a study released in 1994, Professor James Medoff of Harvard University found that the vulnerability of all workers to permanent layoff rather than temporary layoff has increased dramatically in recent years. In the 1990-1991 recession, for example, 86% of workers who lost their jobs were on permanent layoff -- while the remaining 14% were on layoff expecting recall. By contrast, in the prior four recessions, on average just over half of the job losers were permanent while 44% were on temporary layoff.

Medoff found that male workers in their prime earning years accounted for a majority of this increase in permanent layoffs. He found that, in the period between 1980 and 1993, unemployed male workers aged 35 to 54 were nearly twice as likely to suffer permanent layoff or job loss than in the prior 13 years.

The study pointed out that about one million men a year now suffer this devastating mid-life job crisis -- at a time when their financial and family responsibilities are the greatest. Millions more face the threat of permanent job loss. Medoff concludes that this dramatic deterioration in the job security of men in their prime earning years is having profound and lasting effects on American families and American society in general.
