

I think that the creation of a small power radio service is a very good idea. I am the pastor of a small church. Several of our members are infirm, and unable to attend worship services. A low power radio broadcast would keep them involved in our parish community. Sincerely Pastor Jay Herndon