

I think it's a great idea to finally legalize low-power broadcasting. I would like to see the availability of 1 and 10 watt licensing (there are plenty of people that still cannot afford 100 or 1000 watt amps and would like a community voice regardless)