

I am against any delays in the comment period for this rule-making. People have waited long enough for their rights. The NAB should know by now what their reasons are for opposing low power radio, I do. They want ALL the power, high, low and medium. Throw the bums out and start over, that's what I say.