

Please do not extend the period for comments on 99-25. Low Power Radio Service is an idea whose time has come, as evidenced by the clear demand for it by people, organizations, and communities across the country. I understand in Michigan several cities have passed resolutions calling for legalization of low power FM.