

I strongly support the licensing of low power FM stations. This would be a great help in communities where there is currently no radio station.