

KRTS-FM strongly opposes the FCC's granting of licenses for Low Power FM stations because this will degrade too many signals. Additionally, the FCC does not have the ability to properly regulate the Low Power FM Stations.