Dear Mr. Dalessandro: Perhaps your daily messages are actionable harassment.

Perhaps they are a "taking" of the computer space of those to whom they are addressed. In any event, they are usually rude, uninformed, and not very enlightening. No doubt sending them gives you great personal pleasure; receiving them does not occasion a similar result.

Olga D'Alessandro Files a Complaint against The NAB for Inflicting Civil Rights Punishment In Regards To:

A civil right is an enforceable right or privilege, which if interfered with by another gives rise to an action for injury. Examples of civil rights are freedom of speech, press, assembly, the right to vote, freedom from involuntary servitude, and the right to equality in public places. Discrimination occurs when the civil rights of an individual are denied or interfered with because of their membership in a particular group or class. Statutes have been enacted to prevent discrimination because of a person's race, sex, religion, age, previous condition of servitude, physical limitation, national origin and in some instances sexual preference.
