

I am writing to express support for the LPFM concept, and to suggest that advertising and underwriting supported stations be allowed as an option. Please include me in any future mailings related to this topic. Thank you for your efforts to insure that diverse voices may be heard, strengthening our national discourse.