

I support the proposed rule, as I believe that the presence of diverse voices on the airwaves--a presence that the rule would allow a greater possibility of--benefits my community.