

I support noncommercial local, LP100 service. I am against LP1000; LP100 should have primary status. A point system should be used to decide between competing applications. Ownership must be local, and there should be only one station per owner. At least 50% of