

LPFM stations should NOT be commercial. this will only lead to more huge companies owning more radio stations, effectively reducing the diversity of opinion and information in what the public can hear. if the public really owns the airwaves, then petitions/votes and not money should be what determines the validity of a license request. thanks!

---

Do You Yahoo!?

Get your free @yahoo.com address at <http://mail.yahoo.com>