

It is of my opinion that these proposals granting smaller FM stations be ratified. I believe that this proposal allows small communities more media to express their freedoms with.