

LPFM licenses will encourage greater diversity in, and allow for community based, radio broadcasts. Therefore I support the idea wholeheartedly. I also believe that so-called "radio pirates" who desisted from broadcasting after being warned should be eligible for licenses.