

I am in support of this new service.

Our community would benefit by being able to distribute local information about community events and services without having to purchase air time on commercial stations.

Since the frequencies will be coordinated, I do not think there will be interference with existing services.

I believe the new service would benefit many in our community with little impact on existing station advertising revenues.