

We support low power FM broadcasting, which we would like to use to air our services to neighboring shut-in members. We are not interested in any commercial benefit, and are no threat to local stations. We have been locked out of the local market by high demand on Sunday morning and station formats, which are increasingly less local in nature.

Thank you for your consideration.