

Please stop the consolidation of FM radio into corporate hands.
Mega-mergers of FM stations are driving out the competition of ideas presented on FM radio.
The FCC should protect us from this type of monopoly by limiting the number of HI high power FM licenses to single corporations and by letting the low power FM license
be given out for a reasonable cost. 10 Watts for $100?