

As a voter and a taxpayer, I am writing to show my support for Low= Power FM (LPFM) radio. The technology for such stations has existed for quite some time, and in a world of increasingly homogeneous commercial offerings, I believe that in LPFM, the FCC has an opportunity to forward freedom of speech and the democratic process to an uncommon degree. Missing this chance to make America a better place would be a travesty.

---

Get your own FREE, personal Netscape WebMail account today at <http://webmail.netscape.com>.