

As it is becoming more and more common for businesses to be spread over a number of "near" building, producing a campus like space, it would be very beneficial if these businesses could run their own sub-10 watt FM radio station.

Therefor, I request that the sub-10 watt LPFM licensees / operators that you propose have NO restrictions.

Thanks