

I would like to express my support for the idea of creating a low power radio service. I feel this move by the FCC will enable communities to have more diverse and specific radio programming in their community. I can see nothing but positive results from this move.

thank you

tracy camp