

Micro radio should be legalized. There is no reason to prohibit this, it does not need to interfere with anything and it is very useful for communities to be able to communicate.

We need to start valuing information and education more, and this is one way to get started in that direction.