

low wattage non-commercial radio service is essential for diverse communities in order that their voices be heard. i support the comments and position of the national lawyers guild in this matter. thank you.