

I am for the FCC offering low power FM radio station licenses to more individuals. It allows more choices to listeners, freedom of expression and speech, and gives the little guy a place in a market dominated by large companies. Thanks