

i urge the fcc to allow and make possible low power fm radio. mainstream radio has become nothing more than a marketing tool for corporate america: we only hear what corporations backing the stations want people to hear. it is all about money and profit. i for one don't listen to music because of its money making potential, i listen to music for what it is: music. let's give radio back to the musicians...