

Request for more time to response to 99-25 by Greater Media should not be granted nor should a request be granted to the NAB. The Commission has a complete record both pro and con in this matter. Anymore delays is just a waste of time. Each side has been given more than enough time to make their case The time has come to move forward in this matter and let the Commission do its work.