

I support the creation of a low power radio service and applaud the efforts of the FCC in creating this opportunity.