

I wish to log my support for the creation of a low power radio service. Its important in America to further the cause of free speech in any way possible.