

I urge you in the strongest terms to support the implementation of a system for allowing low power radio. As it stands we are losing our radio diversity to big business.

I believe in our freedom of speech. I also have seen our public radio stations taken over by corporate interests. I hope this small concession, will in some small way allow us to continue our radio diversity.

It is only through the free expression of thoughts and ideas that our country will remain strong.